

Axcient Granular Mailbox Recovery for MS Exchange

Axcient Granular Mailbox Recovery for MS Exchange

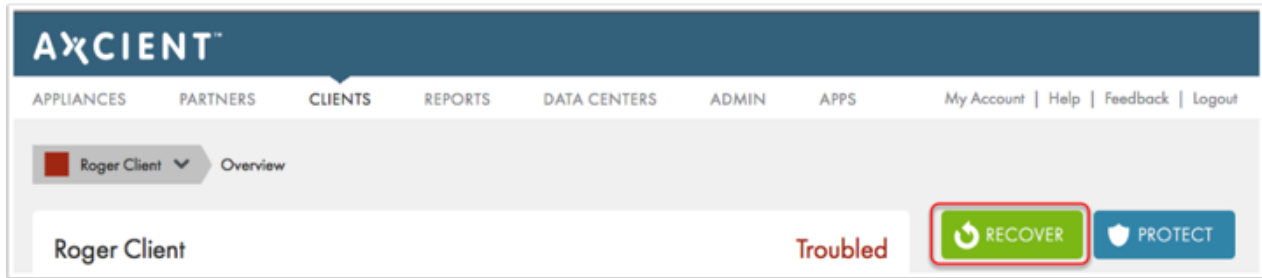

Created with Axcient technology and not from a licensed third-party or OEM provider, the Axcient Granular Mailbox Recovery for MS Exchange gives you the power to quickly and efficiently recover Exchange mailboxes and related objects.

User deleted an important email? Can't find an attachment? Mailbox got corrupted? No problem. If you are an Axcient customer, the Granular Mailbox Recovery for MS Exchange is part of your core solution and can help you in any of those situations.

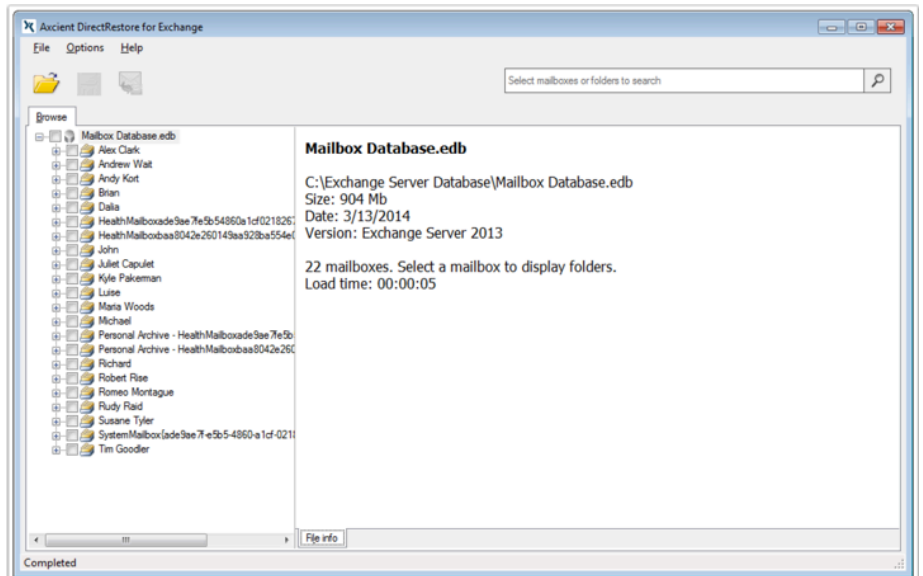

How It Works

The Granular Mailbox Recovery for MS Exchange seamlessly melds all core Axcient Technologies to make search and recovery of lost emails, critical calendar appointments, important contacts and tasks a snap for both MSP (Managed Service Provider) and Enterprise customers alike.

Fully integrated with our web-based interface, you can initiate recovery operations from anywhere and any web-enabled device.

Select the restore point you would like to use, and a Windows Explorer-like interface allows you to browse the backed up image of your MS Exchange database to search, select, and recover the information you need.
